AGE 76 · 17 JULY 2025 – 17 JULY 2026

This year of your life

As you enter your 76th year there is a need to open your horizons on an intellectual and philosophical front, and perhaps also through travel and cultural input.

Your ability to think positively is mobilized, although you are also confronted by beliefs that may be the polar opposites of your own. Your opinions are considerably constrained by the demands of society. A strong sense of duty guides you, and the insights you gain remind you that some kind of structure is necessary to contain growth. Optimism is therefore tempered by a somber realism. With age, you can become an intellectual authority. This is expressed very much in home and family matters this year... parents, children and grandchildren, property etc. An expansion is sure to take place in this area now, and the greatest insight is harvested through an understanding of family dynamics, and an exploration of improvement possibilities at home. It could bring meaning for you to modify some of your convictions and beliefs now.

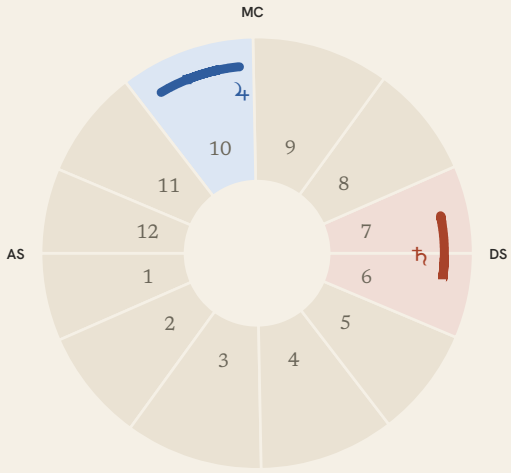
Jupiter and Saturn through your houses



The process of attaining success during the current year depends on the one hand on how well you build upon early experience and on the other on formulating your vision for the future. Once you have a vision, you can plan how to achieve it step by step. An optimistic attitude and belief in yourself will help you to overcome the challenges that naturally arise during the course of the year.

June 2025 to August 2026 · career and authorities

From June 2025 to August 2026 you capitalize on the knowledge and experience you have garnered earlier to make a concrete success of your life. Good fortune smiles on your work and ambitions in this period, and you can expand your sphere of influence. Influential people will support you, and if you strive for recognition, you will achieve it. If you go for your hopes and dreams now, then your expectations have a good chance of being fulfilled.

SATURN · 6TH TO 7TH HOUSE

♄ Saturn moves into your 7th house

Crosses your Descendant on 12 March 2026 · work environment to relationships

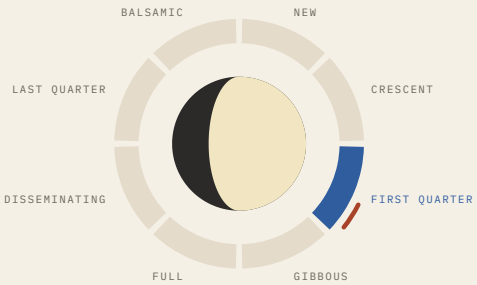
In this period of your life there is a change in your dealings with people, as you move from interacting with people on a practical level in connection with your work and daily life, to actually learning how to deal with partners on a one to one basis. This new influence starts growing around March 2026 and will ebb out around March 2028. It is the beginning of an outgoing epoch in your life; the big test comes in how you live up to partnership responsibilities.

There are major challenges, demands are made on you, and you have to, on the one hand resist giving others the blame for your issues, whilst on the other you need to establish limits to what you are prepared to accept in a relationship. You have to work at partnership now and make a commitment, though it is no use expending any more time on hopeless relationships. What you start now can last a long time.

> Saturn crosses your Descendant in the same weeks that Neptune reaches it. See Relationship disorientation, page 8.

Your progressed Moon

As you grow and mature emotionally, the focus shifts from one area of life to another, and you instinctively absorb the lessons connected with the many different emotional facets of your life.



YOUR PHASE

First Quarter

Since April 2023, and until February 2027, when the Gibbous phase begins.

Your progressed Moon is 117°–129° ahead of the progressed Sun

During the age of 76 you are in a phase of your personal evolution which is to do with establishing foundations, for example through home and family. Relations with parental figures or your own role as a parent or grandparent are crucial to this process. It is a dynamic and testing period for your character, yet it also brings the first tangible results in an evolutionary process that began for you about seven or eight years ago.

You need to be very adaptable now, because your instinctual drives have a different agenda to what you otherwise might want to do with your life. This tension creates considerable drive, and achievements can come on several fronts if you are willing to fight. The effort you put in now brings satisfying creative results which you can enjoy later.

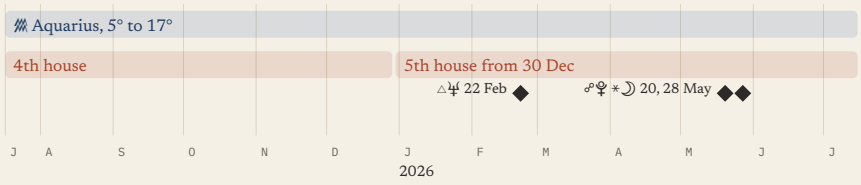
THROUGH THE YEAR



IN AQUARIUS ALL YEAR

During the year ahead you continue a trend of involvement with friends and groups who share your interests and views, and pursue an exciting course of personal development through exposure to new environments. You are open and ready to experiment with your life, and reject restrictions imposed by systems in society that try to stereotype you. Your unique intellectual and social qualities come to the fore and make you stand out from the crowd, whilst you seek out people who espouse freedom and untraditional views. Alternative movements draw you into their sway and you feel gripped by the winds of change in your community.

Your progressed Moon

INTO THE 5TH HOUSE · 30 DECEMBER 2025

Whilst you are still in a very domesticated period, with your emotional energy focused on your family, children and grandchildren, or home building, there is a change of emphasis around December 2025. At this time there is an urge to let the family look after its own problems and to make more of a celebratory splash. In other words you want to express yourself more creatively, and evoke creative behavior in others dear to you, like children and grandchildren. This is a time when you are inclined to romance, with everything romance brings... more sex, partying, music, dance and play. You need to learn to live life to the full as a well-rounded human being, and build up greater confidence in your performance.

HIGHLIGHTED THIS YEAR

There are some emotional developments this year that are specifically highlighted:

22 February 2026 · p☽ Progressed Moon trine ♆ Neptune

Around February 2026 there are a number of creative opportunities that come your way, opening your heart and soul to the subtle but precious areas of life, like nature, music, film and spiritual interests generally. This is not a time when professional or family matters have priority – indeed you may be fed up with the routine and lack of inspiration. What you need at this time is to immerse yourself in activities that feel meaningful and real for your spiritual evolution.

20 May 2026 · p☽ Progressed Moon opposite ♇ Pluto

Around May 2026 you are shaken by an event of considerable emotional intensity that undermines your security and awakens your anxiety. Probably someone is making far too intense demands on you, and this may be the time for you to cut unhealthy bonds that are characterized by over-dependence and power battles. The atmosphere is intolerable – you can either look within and resolve some of your own psychological issues, or clean up on the outside. Expect to get your hands dirty.

28 May 2026 · p☽ Progressed Moon sextile ☽ Moon

Around May 2026 is a time when you are truly in touch with your emotions, and can express them clearly and authentically. At this time there are creative and encouraging developments connected with home and family. There are no doubts about what you instinctually feel, and your sensitivity and empathy peak.

> In late May the progressed Moon reaches both ends of your natal Moon–Pluto trine, a week before progressed Mars meets Pluto. See Survival power, page 10.

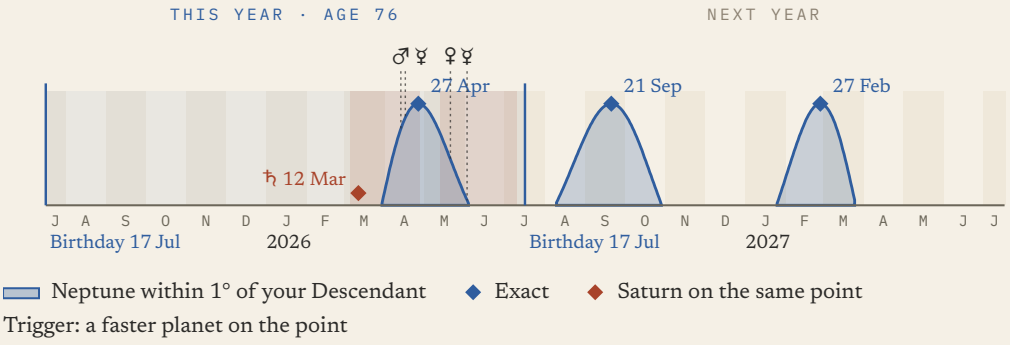
Relationship disorientation

Exact on 27 April 2026, then twice more by February 2027



This period is a time of transition and change in relationships. If you have founded your own security structures on other people, you can expect these structures to dissolve. Experience will show that you actually cannot control what others do in your life, so you may as well give up trying.

An attitude of acceptance and surrender will get you furthest now. Close partners may find themselves in unhappy circumstances, in which case it is more important for you to give them space than to come with solutions. Partnerships can succeed only if you are united around a higher purpose – perhaps a spiritual purpose.

Love based on romantic notions or with any kind of narcissistic element will be exposed as illusory, and you will be let down. This period of dissolution or powerlessness in connection with relationships stems from a trend lasting from the end of March 2026 to the end of March 2027 and can ultimately lead to richer and more rewarding emotional bonds. You are likely to encounter creative media types or spiritual people now, who give your life new meaning.

Your Uranus square to the Ascendant–Descendant axis

Together with Neptune square Uranus, exact on 31 March 2026, this lights up your natal Uranus square to the Ascendant–Descendant axis. The changes and insights you experience in this connection relate to your search for alternative life views to gain perspective on your life and your future.

A real tension, though not the loudest note. You feel your role in life to be connected in some way to the necessity for change — to future visions rather than present conventions. You add genuine originality to your surroundings, and people are either inspired or provoked by your personal style, sometimes both simultaneously.

Capricorn rising, square your natal Neptune · Venus trine your natal Neptune · Saturn, the chart ruler, conjunct Neptune

This theme evokes certain emotional states that you have struggled with in your life connected with personal suffering and the sense of being swept along by a wave that you cannot control. However your judgment in relationships can be unrealistic, and though romantic dreams seem to be fulfilled, in the end love may not live up to your expectations. Your fantasy and imagination are very important now, and the dreams and ideals that you nurture have more impact than practical considerations. You oscillate between euphoria and disappointment, but you grow. You discover a deep well of love in yourself, and this can give a great boost to creativity or compassionate ventures. Through spiritual insight and surrender you discover how you fit in to the greater scheme of things.

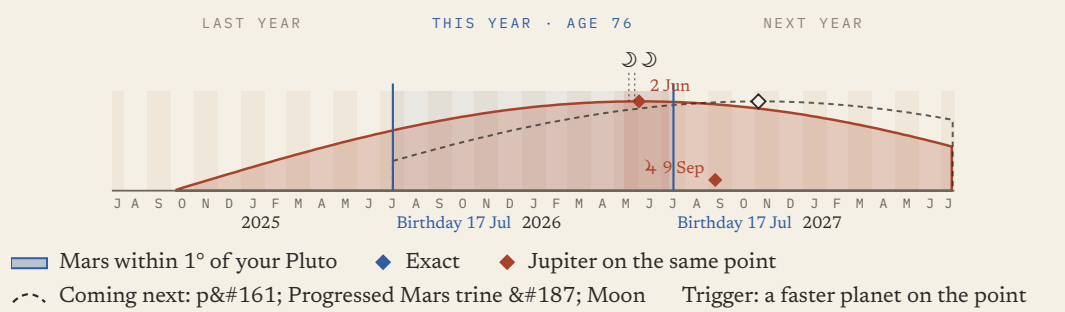
Survival power

Building since 2024, at its height in June 2026, easing through 2027



At this time of your life, you are driven by obsessive urges to immerse yourself totally in your desires. This influence, which peaks around June 2026, ultimately leads to a major transformation in the way you use your energy, both at work and in your intimate life. Sexual desire tends to consume you, as you seek to get the ultimate experience. The more you indulge, the more empty it becomes. You may be tempted to use your power in ways you would normally question.

In your career or life's work superhuman challenges loom large and require unrelenting effort that ultimately leads to exhaustion. Does this serve your best interests? Withdraw from battles against invincible forces and work on your inner strength.

This is a good time for working with secrets. It is also an excellent time for martial arts and survival sports. The purpose of this period is to transform the way you use energy.

Old traumas are dredged up through encounters with faceless power, and a psychological transformation takes place which mobilizes true survival ability. In your sexual life you can reach new heights through understanding tantra. This can be part of some years of development also connected with events around February 2030.

With Mars in your birth chart in Gemini and in the 9th house, this relates to your need to vigorously express your ideas and be involved in a multiplicity of ventures, and this manifests as an energetic urge to propagate your views, and explore the world.

The overall effect of this influence activates your inherent tendency to become involved with groups who seem to render you powerless, which evokes an intense need to be in control in social situations.

COMING NEXT

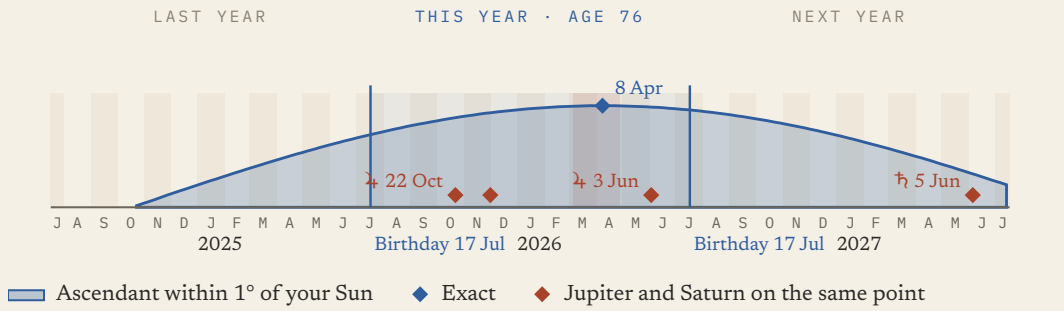
During the course of the year after this one there is an important influence which you are very likely to feel already during the course of this year. Perhaps nothing happens right now, but you will sense the following theme developing, even if it is early days:

DEFENSIVE POSTURE

Your emotions manifest much more strongly because of domestic issues that you are willing to battle for. This is an excellent period for building a home, new arrivals in the family or going on adventures with the family. Outer threats to inner security are met with healthy aggression on your part.

Recognition and success

Building since 2024, at its height in April 2026, easing through 2027



A wonderful window of opportunity arises in the months around April 2026 which will enable your character to shine through and impress influential people. This is a time of guaranteed success as regards relationships and self-realization, which can manifest through educational recognition, love, children and grandchildren and exhilarating family events, widening of horizons and success in your life's work. Your most noble qualities are awakened and you automatically rise in the esteem of others.

As you generally feel good about yourself now, and have evidence to prove that you are appreciated, you have no difficulty attracting others towards your center of gravity. You can form a relationship with someone who you admire and respect now, and who brings out the best in you. This is an excellent time for self-promotion and creative projects where you project yourself onto center stage.

You are in a rare period of possibility this year that enables you to make some deep-seated transformation of the style and direction of your life, both in terms of relationships and life path. You realize that you cannot continue as before; you have exhausted the possibilities that the past presented, and are ready to eliminate those things which have outlived their usefulness. When you get rid of the elements in your past that have exhausted you, you find new energy and power, and you feel in control of your life again. You may be under extreme pressure from people, but you can use this pressure to temper your will like a steel blade, and cut through the bonds that drag you down.

This transformation spans the period from the beginning of February 2025 to the end of December 2026. This is about your life and how you want to live it – it's not the time to compromise. Assert your personal power and make the necessary changes.

Exciting lifestyle change

♅ Uranus trine Ascendant · exact 20 June 2026, again Dec 2026 and Apr 2027 · ●●○ · Spanning

This will prove to be a very interesting period of your life. It is a time when you meet inspiring and untraditional people from all walks of life and of all nationalities, and this in turn makes you aware of a whole range of possibilities in your own life. You feel the need for freedom, and this can bring long-distance travel to exotic places, not primarily for pleasure but more for personal growth.

In partnership you need both to give and to get more space to pursue the alternative interests that arise at this time. Intellectual and social stimulation are paramount, and you are more likely to gravitate to unconventional subjects of study connected with personal growth and the spiritual world, than to conventional subjects. This trend lasts from the beginning of June 2026 to the end of April 2027 and brings a pronounced expansion of your social network in unusual directions.

This is especially apparent in the period from the beginning to the middle of July 2026 when things flow smoothly in many areas of your life.

Now is the time to go into the world with confidence; you can expect the support of influential people and mentors, and you will find that your own grasp and understanding of events reflects your innate wisdom. Travel is favored and brings you together with people who are good for you. Partners can be encountered abroad or when studying, and they too may be in an expansive phase of their life.

Responsibilities at home and work

♄ Saturn square Midheaven · exact 21 March 2026 · ●○○ · Current

This is a time when it is important to make structural changes in both your domestic and your professional or public lives, as times are changing and new challenges arise. At home there may be circumstances that restrict your growth and limit your space, and family developments and relationships may require you to use more effort untangling the knots. This is the time to build efficient structures in the space you have available. In your professional or public life it is likely that progress is slower than usual, and authority figures may place obstacles in your path.

Vocation and contribution

If the going gets tough, it pays to put more time in and take more responsibility. In the period from the middle to the end of March 2026 you will be challenged to find a balance between how much effort you put into your work and projects compared to how much effort you put into your home. Don't expect speedy results – people are not satisfied easily at this time – but with perseverance and commitment, you will be able to establish lasting structures for future growth.

Shifting sands at home and work

♆ Neptune square Midheaven · exact 10 June 2026, again Aug 2026, Mar 2027, Nov 2027 and Jan 2028 · ●●● · Spanning

This is a time when there will be a sense of dissatisfaction with the status quo and a longing to have more depth and meaning in your career or life's work and domestic life which can undermine your spirit if you feel that you are engaged in activities that do not inspire you. You may perceive that authorities and leadership fail you, or disappoint you because their values are not in alignment with yours. Family matters too can undermine your foundations. This period of confusion or discontent stems from a trend that lasts from the end of April 2026 to the end of February 2028, but ultimately it will help clarify your goals.

Under the circumstances it can be difficult to have a firm base to stand on, or a firm goal to strive for. It is therefore a good idea to take time off and tune in to the visions that truly inspire you, whether they are creative or spiritual. Knowing what you don't want is the first stage towards defining what you do want, so use your dissatisfaction as a guide and don't go for second best.

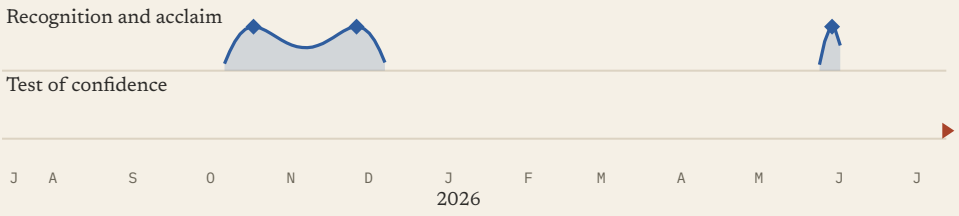
Inner growth

Maturing through responsibility

A defining friction – one of the real tensions in your chart. You are an inspiring presence with a genuine gift for positive thinking and finding meaning in experience. Finding a mentor or teacher who can genuinely impress you is important – but few will have the intellectual or spiritual depth you actually require.



Inner growth

Recognition and acclaim

♃ Jupiter conjunct ☉ Sun · exact 22 October 2025, again Dec 2025 and Jun 2026 · ●●○ · Current

Once every twelve years you will experience a boost in confidence, which permeates down to almost everything you do and the period from the beginning of October 2025 to the beginning of June 2026 is this time. This can be because of an intellectual success, a major expansion of your horizons culturally or geographically, or simply because an important mentor figure takes you under his or her wing. Other things being equal, fortune smiles on you now, and the increase in your self-confidence has a cumulative effect, bringing higher expectations, a more persuasive manner and the ability to sell yourself and your capacities. Your wisdom and understanding expand and you feel you know what life is about, and where you fit in the scheme of things.

Perhaps too you feel that you can share your insights with others via an educational project. Expect a degree of recognition and fame now. However, high-flyers can fall, so bear in mind that this trend is short lived.

ON THE WAY

A major influence that takes place during the course of the subsequent year may already make its presence felt this year. You may not act on this influence yet, but the urge to act will get stronger and stronger.

Test of confidence

♄ Saturn square ☉ Sun · exact 5 June 2027, again Oct 2027 and Feb 2028 · ●○○ · On the way

Challenges arise which at first powerfully affect your self confidence, as successes are few and far between and recognition and respect lacking. By working on building your character and patiently shouldering responsibility, you establish a position of confidence.

Feelings and home

Emotional restraint

With your Moon in your birth chart in Aries and in the 7th house, this relates to your tremendous emotional spontaneity and dynamism, and relationships will be the major playground for your feelings, as you attune strongly to the moods of others.

Over-emotional times

♃ Jupiter square ☽ Moon · exact 20 August 2025, again Feb 2026 and Mar 2026 · ●●○ · Current

You can expect an expansion in your home and family life in the period from the middle of August 2025 to the middle of April 2026 which can arise from home improvements or moving, or from new people in the local or international environment, or simply from a new period of emotional growth that requires considerable adjustment. Things can get a bit much, or you can bite off more than you can chew, and this in turn results in emotional states that tend to affect your judgment. To avoid misjudgment in this period, especially through over expansion, it is important to understand that feelings come and go, and they should not alone form the basis of actions.

You can get particularly worked up about injustice, and there may be one issue in particular that you find especially unfair. But perhaps you have just outgrown a situation that would have restricted you anyway. It is time to move on and grow.

Prolonged learning and study

With Mercury in your birth chart in Cancer and in the 10th house, this relates to your deep and intuitive mental sensitivity, which you channel into your career or life's work, where contacts, ideas and communication are paramount.

A real tension, though not the loudest note. In intimate relationships you are acutely attuned to what the other person is thinking – sometimes accurately, sometimes not. The effort to say what is actually there, even when it feels risky, is the communication task that changes everything.

Mentorship

Once every twelve years you have the opportunity to start a new expansion of your mental horizons and attain intellectual excellence, and the period from the beginning to the middle of August 2025 is one of these moments. It is very likely that there is increased travel at this time, though transportation itself will be elegantly solved. Short international or inter-state journeys may be necessary to connect with influential people and mentor figures, whose knowledge and experience you cannot do without. This is also an excellent time for expanding your networks, in business and beyond.

Your mind bubbles with ideas, and there is a sense that these ideas can now be arranged to fit the bigger picture. You become skillful and persuasive, and this enables you to link up with partners and groups who can help you get your message across. Expressing the inexpressible

☿ Progressed Mercury conjunct ♆ Neptune · exact 16 December 2025 · ●●● · Current

There is a growing longing to express thoughts and feelings that well up inside you around December 2025 and you search for the means to do this. You may have mastered the art of rational expression, but how can you express feelings for which there is no language? Some people find the answer in music, singing, poetry and art – by allowing these influences to wash over you now you add color to whole areas of your life that previously had been in tones of gray. There is a spiritual message to learn and to deliver, but the written word may not be enough.

You can now harness the power of your imagination to get this message across. Not everything is clear; there may be sadness and confusion. Not everyone can be trusted; there may be lies and distortion. Fog rolls in and obscures the path.

You may be tempted to cut corners, bend the rules, and fool yourself and others. Mistakes will come back to haunt you, so abide in honesty. You meet a guide well-versed in spiritual journeys. This can be part of a mental development process that has its parallel around January 2024.

Exasperation

♄ Saturn square ☿ Mercury · exact 21 June 2026, again Sep 2026 and Mar 2027 · ●●○ · Spanning

There seem to be difficulties and delays in all sorts of ways in this period. Whether it is connected with travel, communication, relations or education, there are knotty problems that take time and can be the source of considerable frustration. This is a testing period mentally, and short cuts are not permitted. If projects seem overwhelming, divide them into smaller tasks and concentrate on them rather than thinking about the whole project.

It is important to plan well now, and to put more effort into the task at hand. You need to learn the basic skills, so be patient – with yourself and with the people you are involved with. This mentally challenging period lasts from the beginning of June 2026 to the middle of March 2027 and you will emerge from it with a much better grasp of the issues than you had at the beginning. The essential thing is to avoid worry and negative thinking, which will only wear you down physically and mentally, and to rise to each small challenge with determination and a positive attitude.

Love and values

Overcoming relationship challenges

With Venus in your birth chart in Leo and in the 11th house, this relates to your need to respect and be respected in love, and to be warm and romantic, which you will express particularly in group environments and in your friendships.

Two forces fused into one – a dominant current you express as a single drive. Your intimate relationships are characterised by intensity – you are not interested in the casual or superficial, and you invest heavily in attracting and securing love and attention. There is also a quality of fatedness to your connections – a sense that this particular bond was destined, that nothing could break it.

Relationship challenges

♄ Saturn conjunct Descendant · exact 12 March 2026 · ●●○ · Current

After a period of consolidation in your daily rhythms, the time has come for you to focus on the challenges that relationships and partnership bring. A new epoch is starting when you need to come out into the world with what you have to offer, and this means sharing responsibility. This is not meant to be easy in the beginning, and one person in particular may represent a difficult challenge.

Patience in dealing with others is crucial, and you also need to develop diplomatic skills. Partners teach you to rein in your emotions and personal desires, and to shoulder some of their burden, and this can be quite a new feeling. Every little challenge that is overcome adds to your people skills and resilience in dealing with others, and it is these very skills that form the foundation for your future.

Relationship challenges will cover the period from the beginning to the middle of March 2026. Bonds you form at this time are likely to last many years into the future. Bonds that break do so because their time is over.

The period from the beginning of April 2025 to the middle of January 2026 is a testing time in connection with work and other projects that you have been building for some time. If you want things to turn the corner now, you have to put in extra hours, and even so there can be delays and obstacles. Male authorities in particular can stand in your way – they are simply not motivated to make life easy for you. By gritting your teeth and overcoming each challenge as it arises, you build up the inner strength to win through in the end.

Your biggest enemy may just be your own lack of confidence or unwillingness to compete, and this can affect more personal issues too, like your sex life. This is just a passing phase which ultimately serves to strengthen your willpower and determination, so don't lose courage. This is also a time when you can learn to rein in your own desires and control any tendency you may have to be dominating or inconsiderate. Collective trends

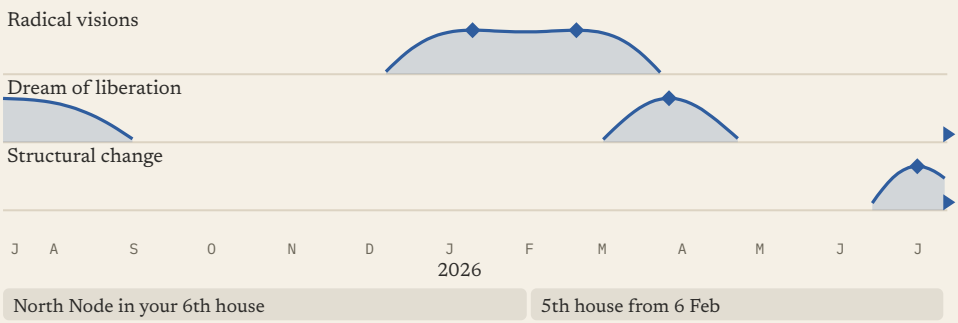
The influences mentioned so far in this analysis have an effect on your psychological evolution and fate which is strictly personal. There are other influences on your life based on your relationship to the collective, which can be just as exciting and stimulating for you, even though they may not evoke dramatic personal change.



Radical visions

♅ Uranus trine ♃ Jupiter · exact 14 January 2026, again Feb 2026 · ●●○ · Spanning

In this period you are willing to take major, radical steps to open up your intellect to new and original input. Whilst this is an excellent time for further education, your interest is not captured by boring rote learning or unoriginal information served in unoriginal ways. This is an intercontinental period – horizons are blown wide open and the urge to get unique input from faraway destinations is extremely strong.

You seek mentors who have an untraditional or even revolutionary approach, and you can make progress spiritually, intellectually and philosophically at a very rapid pace. New discoveries galvanize your imagination, and the future beckons bright and strong. This trend, which lasts from the beginning of May 2025 to the end of March 2026, puts you in touch with your own unique intellectual qualities through contact with people who think outside the box.

Structural change

♅ Uranus square ♄ Saturn · exact 5 July 2026, again Nov 2026 and Apr 2027 · ●●○ · Spanning

This is a time of change in your professional life or life's work when you gravitate towards experimental groups, who have alternative solutions for how things are to be done. There is a spirit of equality and democracy, and a horizontal structure of authority rather than a vertical structure. Ambition is seen more as a limitation than a virtue, and solidarity is the highest professional value. If you are stuck in a conventional job or role, you are likely to challenge authority.

You long for freedom and space; you seek alternative methods for getting work done. It works for you to get involved in a group, just as long as there are no authority figures. Family structures can also change, and parental authority in particular is challenged. This period of experimentation lasts from the middle of June 2026 to the middle of May 2027 and will generally lead to change in established domestic and professional structures.

THE NORTH NODE THROUGH YOUR HOUSES

Seen from another viewpoint, there is a purposeful evolution in your life, and each of the events that arise can be seen as milestones on the journey of your soul. There are some fields of your experience which you are all too familiar with, and perhaps you need to relinquish your attachment to them. Other areas of experience present new and interesting challenges for your soul, and require total immersion.

NORTH NODE

July 2025 to February 2026 · North Node in your 6th house

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is connected with coming out of a sense of isolation and getting more involved in the working functions of society. Integrating with the work force or your community brings up the spirit of service, and this can bring a lot of meaning in a world that sometimes can feel very lonely. What works at this time is to organize your life and create daily rhythms, which exercise your body, mind and soul.

From 6 February 2026 · North Node in your 5th house

The primary evolutionary focus in the year is on personal creativity connected with things like children and grandchildren, play and self-expression. Deeply significant events will take place in these areas, turning your focus in on yourself. Equally significant events connected with your social life and general involvement in society will teach you to detach and release your desire for too much social involvement, which might cause you to lose focus on the personal.

IN SUM

Your year in brief

Your close relationships are in transition this year. From the end of March 2026 to the end of March 2027, any security you have placed in others may loosen. Around 27 April 2026, you are in the thick of it. You may feel unsure and powerless with others. It helps to accept that what they do lies beyond your control. When a partner meets hard times, you help most by giving space rather than answers. Partnerships thrive when you share a purpose, perhaps a spiritual one, and creative or spiritual people may bring new meaning into your life. In time, you can find richer and more rewarding bonds. Love built on romantic ideals may not hold, so it pays to see clearly what a bond rests on.

A fierce drive has been building since 2024, and from mid-May to early July 2026 it is at its height. At work and in intimate life, you may want to give yourself wholly to your desires. Secrets, martial arts and survival sports suit this time. When huge challenges at work wear you down, you can step back from fights you cannot win and grow stronger inside. Old hurts may surface, and facing them can deepen your power to endure. Even so, it's easy to chase intensity until it feels empty, or to use power in ways you would usually question.

From early December 2025 to mid-January 2026, you face tests of endurance while ideas flow, influential people shape your view of the future, and you can strip your life back to essentials. From early March to late April 2026, your confidence peaks, your character shows clearly and influential people take notice. Recognition can come through learning, love, grandchildren, family events or your life's work. With someone you admire, you can form a bond that brings out your strengths, and through creative projects you can put your gifts on show.

How to read this report

Your Year Report follows your year from one birthday to the next. It reads three layers against your birth chart: transits, progressions and your Solar Return. The influences are ranked, so the strongest come first: three major themes, then the life areas, then the collective trends.

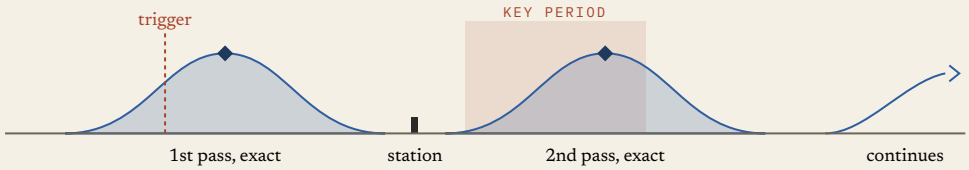
THREE LAYERS

Transits are the planets moving through the sky now, from Jupiter to Pluto, as they touch points in your birth chart. They bring themes of change and opportunity.

Progressions are your birth chart unfolding slowly, one day after birth for each year of life. They bring themes of inner evolution. A small p marks a progressed planet: p♂ is progressed Mars.

Your Solar Return is the chart for the moment the Sun returns to its place at your birth, around your birthday. It appears only where it agrees with a theme, under "Your Solar Return agrees".

READING THE GRAPHS



A hill shows an influence building and fading. The higher the hill, the closer it is to exact; the diamond marks the exact day. Slow planets often pass a point two or three times, so one influence can have several hills. Only the time within 1° of exact is drawn. An arrow at the edge means the influence began before this birthday year or continues after it.

TRIGGERS, STATIONS AND KEY PERIODS

Triggers are days when a faster planet, the Sun, Mercury, Venus or Mars, crosses the point being touched while the slow planet is within 1°. The theme often shows itself in events around these dates. A station is a planet appearing to stand still before it changes direction; on a point in your chart, it concentrates the influence. A key period is a stretch of weeks when several influences meet.

LIT UP THIS YEAR

Your birth chart holds aspects, patterns between two planets. When this year's influences reach both ends of one, that pattern comes alive, and the report says so in a "Lit up this year" box.
